Empower Tehama is a nonprofit organization in rural Northern California. Our mission is to promote healthy relationships and social change in our communities.

We offer a wide range of services for individuals and families affected by domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, sexual assault, human trafficking, and commercial sexual exploitation of children, child abuse or crime. We have a 24-hour hotline, a drop-in center, a counseling center, and a child advocacy center. Empower Tehama provides legal services, emergency housing, housing assistance and school-based services, including education, prevention and awareness throughout the local community.

Empower Tehama is seeking an experienced Case Coordinator/Housing Specialist to join our team. The ideal candidate will have a Bachelor's degree or equivalent experience. Experience in the fields of social work, case management, peer counseling, substance abuse treatment and other relevant areas is preferred. Bilingual/bicultural applicants are encouraged to apply.

The Prop 47 Case Coordinator/Housing Specialist develops, coordinates, manages and monitors case plans for participants; refers participants to needed community resources; and assists participants with accessing those resources to meet case plan goals. Under direction of the Clinical Director, the Case Coordinator/Housing Specialist coordinates with community partners to foster relationships and avoid duplication of services; assists clients with identifying and addressing barriers to success in obtaining and securing housing; and facilitates or co-facilitates groups about relationships, life skills, anger management, etc. This position is part of an overall team that provides a wide range of housing services to clients including case management, documentation of services provided, client accompaniment and transportation, and fostering relationships with outside agencies/landlords.

Empower Tehama values true collaboration; the ability to effectively engage and work with community partners, staff and the community at large is critical. On-going professional development in the field is valued and supported based on funding availability and the needs of the business.

If you are looking to affect real change and to use your strengths and experiences within a vital and growing organization, this may be a good opportunity for you. To apply, send your application and resume to HR@empowertehama.org. Elected applicants must hold a valid driver's license and proof of insurance. If applicants are selected for further screening/interview, HR will contact via phone or email.
